

I am concerned about the ability of independent ISPs to continue to operate at competitive rates should you chose to de-regulate. Please consider continuing your oversight of this valuable service. Consumers need choice and larger services aren't as responsive as local ISPs. I've tried both and have been most satisfied with my local independent ISP. Thank you for your consideration of my comments.